

Wonderfeel

Artist Statement

My main challenge is trusting my soul.

It is great to be friendly and warm with people, but this does not have to mean I suppress everything else!

If I push away my feelings, I lose my sensitivity.
If I push down my fieryness, I am squashing my primal power.

Either I own my rawness - or my rawness owns me.

The Wonderfeel philosophy is to welcome all parts.
Allowing inner nature to flow.

I have lived most of my life in Nature.
I am nourished by the organic world.
The texture, the mystery, the diversity, the realness.
And I am moved by music that holds this connection.

I love rhythms that feel raw & primal.
Free-range adventures where authenticity thrives.
Where experiences are truly real.

That's the music I choose to create.
